

Domfront / Barenton

La Véloscénie

---

The exit from Domfront isn't easy, with a steep slope and a lot of traffic. However, La Véloscénie then joins a greenway, allowing you to enjoy the beautiful, typical Bocage Normand countryside, particularly beside the Sélune River.

Itinerary

Take great care heading down from Domfront to join the greenway at the bottom of town, as the slope is very steep and the D 976 road here is very busy. After that, follow the peaceful greenway to Barenton.

Links

At the bottom of Domfront, there's another greenway heading north almost as far as Flers station.
