An exceptionally bucolic stage along the Eure Valley, riding beside fields, forests and gently flowing rivers. Start from Épernon, a little town designated a Petite Cité de Caractère® for its history, including the secret of its mummy, to be unearthed... Continue along the charming Drouette River leading to the beautiful Eure River, which guides you to Maintenon. This town boasts a wonderfully romantic château, witness to the secretive love affair between the Sun King, Louis XIV, and Françoise d'Aubigné, better known as Madame de Maintenon.

□ Stage description and details:

From Épernon train station, you start this stage cycling along a series of peaceful little roads shared with motorized traffic leading you beside the Drouette River. Then the stage meanders through the Eure Valley up to Maintenon, a stopover town on the Veloscenic cycle route. The Château de Maintenon is renowned for serving as a love nest for Louis XIV and Madame de Maintenon. The romantic atmosphere imparted by the French formal gardens and Vauban's Aqueduct is striking.

□ Don't miss:
