Continuing to ride along the greenway from Condé-sur-Huisne to Alençon, you leave behind the Perche, but enter the Parc Naturel Régional Normandie-Maine. The Lac du Mêle-sur-Sarthe offers a very refreshing halt, much appreciated by children.

□ Stage description and details:

Leaving Mortagne-au-Perche, you join the greenway that you'll follow for the whole length of this stage. Along the first few kilometres, you have to deal with a deceptively flat-looking slope, but then things ease.

A very short link enables you to reach Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe's village centre, its shops and its lake.

□ Don't miss:

- Mortagne-au-Perche, a fine little town designated a Petite Cité de Caractère® thanks to its remarkable historical, cultural and natural heritage.
- The Base de Loisirs du Mêle-sur-Sarthe: its 16-hectare lake with outdoor leisure centre has made this village a respected Station Verte, offering green holidays in a country setting. Cycling tourists can make the most of a dedicated area that provides cycling facilities.

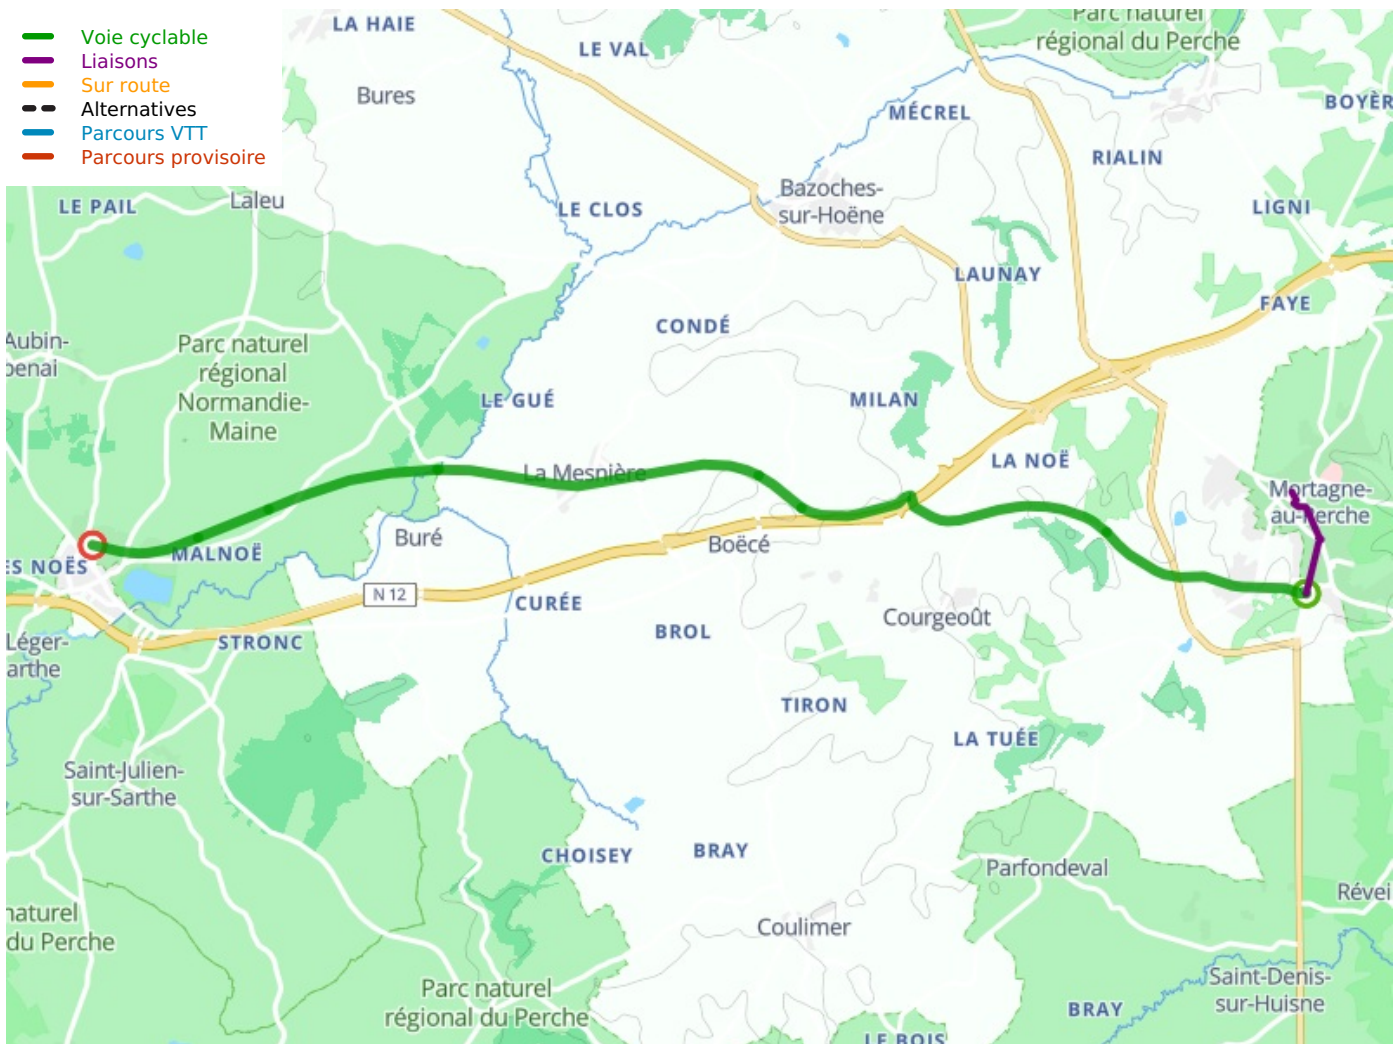

□ Food and drink en route:

- Mortagne-au-Perche: numerous food and drink stores and a market on Saturday mornings on Place Notre-Dame
- Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe: food and drink stores and a market on Wednesday mornings on Place de Gaulle.
